YOUR FIRST OBEDIENCE TRIAL

The decision to enter your first obedience trial should be the culmination of sufficient training to ensure that competing is a happy and rewarding experience. These factors will help:

1. to be in touch with current ANKC Obedience Rules
2. you have trained your dog to the best of your ability
3. you have run through the exercises under mock trial conditions at your local dog obedience training club

What the judge is looking for:

1. enjoyment and willingness to work; fear and dislike of work shall be penalised
2. gentle and smooth handling
3. a handler shall give a command once only, except in the case of the command "Heel" which may be repeated to the dog each time the judge tells the handler to go forward
4. talking to the dog by the handler, snapping of fingers, slapping of sides and stamping of feet must be penalised
5. during the Heel routines, the handler must walk briskly with the dog at the left side. In the "Heel on Lead" exercise, the leash must be completely loose. Guiding the dog by means of the leash is penalised
6. the dog must not anticipate the handler's commands but must wait for commands

A very good opportunity to either enter or observe a trial is coming up with the Club's annual all breeds dog obedience trial being held on Saturday 10 July at our Hoover Road Club Grounds in Queanbeyan.

If you are in Community Companion Dog (CCD) level or higher, your dog may be trained well enough to participate. Ask your Instructor for an informal assessment. The CCD competition format and exercises are similar to the Club's CCD class.

What you need to do to enter the Club trial:

- be a financial member of Dogs NSW (if you live in another State be a financial member of its Canine Association) – the State body which oversees the running of each Club's trials;
- have your dog registered with the appropriate section of Dogs NSW (if you live in another State be a financial member of its Canine Association) - (cross breed and non-pedigree dogs are included on the Associate Register). Your dog will get a unique number to identify him/her and record any passes at obedience trials;
- fill out an entry form and post it off before closing date.

If you want to have a look at dogs doing formal obedience trialling where they can gain ANKC recognised obedience titles, come along on the day, or volunteer to help out.

If you leave the ring as if you have won the class,
your dog will never know or care

SPECIAL ACHIEVEMENTS

Some of our members take their dogs to other official trials.
Here are the stars - you see them training most Sundays!
Ask them any questions about trialling and other competitive sports
